Consideration of Donation:

Thank you from Will Grundy Medical, CASA, Lightways Hospice, Disability Resource Center

Will County Center for Community Concerns is asking for a donation. We just donated in June. We got another request from CASA, we just donated.

Capital Plan: Supervisor Robbins got information from the person in charge of the pole relocation. The design is in progress and scheduled for completion this week and submitted to ComEd for approval. He also heard from Ruettinger and Tonelli they are working on finalizing the engineering proposal and had a few questions that Supervisor Robbins was able to answer.

Reports-

Assessor's Report: We got our tentative factor for 2025 and the County as a whole is looking at a 13.92% increase and Jackson Township is looking at 13.18% increase. These will be 2025 values and 2026 tax bills.

Road Report: There has not been a lot of snow so far this winter, but they did get out on Monday and did spread salt. They won't spread salt until something actually falls just to ensure they are using resources effectively. HC Walsh met today with the salesman from Rush trucks to sign a new contract for a truck.

Town Report: Supervisor Robbins got an email from the fire department, the library would like to join with the newsletter. We need to get a blurb to her by February 3rd for this upcoming newsletter. The suggestion was to explain what the different offices do along with the website. Township Officials of Illinois has a scholarship for a senior going to an Illinois State School.

Trustee Comments: Trustee Fanning was mentioning that townships in the Township Magazine had flags and inquired if we should get one as we already have a logo.
